

JANUARY 2025

JINGLE CONTEST WINNER

The winning entry for the Department of South Dakota 2024-2025 National Home 100th Anniversary jingle contest was announced at the Council of Administration meeting held during the Legislative Conference January 12, 2025, in Pierre.

Charles E. Thorne Auxiliary to VFW Post 2038 in Pierre was the sole winner of the $20 prize.

The tune for "Happy Days are Here Again" was chosen for their entry. This song entered the Public Domain January 1, 2025, and is now available for public use.

The songwriter for the National Home jingle is Deb Fahey of Auxiliary 2038 in Pierre. Besides submitting the words for the song, Deb and seven other members of the Auxiliary sang the song for the submission. This was played for those present at the Council of Administration meeting.

The song has been submitted to the National Home for their information and possible use.

Congratulations to Deb and Auxiliary 2038 in Pierre!

I will post the words to the song separately.

Penny Galinat
Buddy Poppy/National Home Chairman
1114 N. Hwy. 14 #3
Pierre, SD 57501
(605) 224-9586 (home)